The long-term contracts will add over 180 vehicles and increase current fiscal year revenues by approximately $8.6 million annually. One of the contracts is an initial conversion of 50 buses of the district's more than 300 school transportation vehicles. The contracts include annual increases, 100% customer paid fuel and add to the regional density of GST's existing operations in the state of Texas.

"We are delighted to have been awarded these contracts with these districts. We look forward to working with the districts along with the parents, students and residents of these fine communities," stated Richard Templeton, President of Operations at GST. "I am confident that everyone will embrace our high standards of providing exceptional customer service while we increase the quality and efficiency throughout the transportation systems in these districts."

The public-private partnership with the school districts will feature for the most part brand new school vehicles beginning in the 2015-16 school year. The fleet of new buses will feature the latest technological advancements in safety and communications equipment including GPS tracking systems, digital 3-camera surveillance systems, two-way radios, stop-arms and Child Check-Mate systems.
